FUN ACTING GAMES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY
WHAT AM I DOING??

Below is a list of activities kids can act out (pantomime) and the audience has to guess what they are doing. You can use these and come up with your own. Everyone picks an activity previously written on a piece of paper or whispered to them by an older child or adult. For young children, it's fun for a parent to do it with them as others try to guess. This exercise is a great way for kids to start learning acting skills.
